

Martin Luther King Jr. Day: January 16th, 2012

What can you do to get involved?

Volunteer!

MLK Day of Service

Hosted by Girard College

2101 South College Ave, 19121

Girard College is coordinating the volunteer efforts for the MLK Day of Service. Participate in volunteer events like the school's canned food drive, attend a job fair, or sign up for a career skills workshop. Register for these and countless other events by calling any branch of the Philadelphia Public Library or going online at <http://www.mlkdayofservice.org/>.

Fishtown Recreation Center

1201 East Montgomery Avenue, 19125

Volunteer to keep the parks beautiful with mural painting and other clean-up activities, or help make cards for senior citizens! A pizza lunch is provided, but volunteers must be at least ten years old. The program runs from 10 AM to 1 PM.

City Year at Pastorius School

5650 Sprague Street, 19138

Volunteer with City Year to help transform Pastorius School into a more positive learning environment. Registration and opening events start at 8:15 AM, but pre-registration is required online at http://www.cityyear.org/philadelphia_ektid2037.aspx.

Explore!

Constitution Center

525 Arch Street, 19106

Enjoy a sing-a-long concert, arts and crafts, a reading of King's famous "I Have a Dream" speech, and a quilting service project. Entrance to the events is included in the cost of museum admission. Events run from 10 AM to 4 PM.

National Museum of American Jewish History

101 S. Independence Mall East, 19106

Enjoy documentary footage of the civil rights movement, self-guided tours, and a children's watercolor project when you visit the museum on MLK day for free from 10 AM to 5 PM.